Questions and Answers

David Spears asked: "Even if the batteries are not dead they will come regularly and replace them, is that how that works?"

Scott Hadley responded: "Yes, every two years we will get three replacements per device, as per the contract. Obviously, on that piece of equipment you don't want battery operating failure and so we replace every two years as recommended by the manufacturer."

David Spears asked: "I assume you have a lot of these."

Scott Hadley responded: "We have thirty-four of them."
