Thereafter, the Operating Data to be filed by the Issuer with the Repository with respect to the Bonds (and all other series of Bonds then subject to the Disclosure Undertaking) shall be deemed to be amended to reflect the requirements of the revised Operating Data for the new series of Bonds.

The Issuer may amend and any other provision of the Disclosure Undertaking may be waived, provided that Bond Counsel or other counsel experienced in federal securities law matters provides the Issuer with its written opinion that the undertaking of the Issuer contained therein, as so amended or after giving effect to such waiver, is in compliance with the SEC Rule and all current amendments thereto and interpretations thereof that are applicable to the Disclosure Undertaking; provided, however, that the Disclosure Undertaking, may be amended for the purpose of (a) extending the coverage of the Disclosure Undertaking to any additional series of Bonds or (b) removing reference to any series of Bonds for which the Issuer's reporting obligations have terminated, each without the provision of a written opinion as otherwise required by this paragraph. If a provision of the Disclosure Undertaking is amended or waived with respect to a series of Bonds pursuant to this paragraph, the Issuer shall describe such amendment or waiver in the next Annual Report, and shall include, as applicable, a narrative explanation of the reason for the amendment or waiver and its impact on the type (or, in the case of a change of accounting principles, on the presentation) of financial information or operating data being presented by the Issuer. In addition, if the amendment relates to the accounting principles to be followed in preparing financial statements: (a) notice of such change shall be given in the same manner as for a Material Event; and (b) the Annual Report for the year in which the change is made should present a comparison (in narrative form and also, if feasible, in quantitative form) between the financial statements as prepared on the basis of the new accounting principles and those prepared on the basis of the former accounting principles.

Additional Information. Nothing shall be deemed to prevent the Issuer from disseminating any other information, using the means of dissemination set forth in the Disclosure Undertaking or any other means of communication, or including any other information in any Annual Report or notice of occurrence of a Material Event, in addition to that which is required by the Disclosure Undertaking. If the Issuer chooses to include any information in any Annual Report or notice of occurrence of a Material Event, in addition to that which is specifically required by the Disclosure Undertaking, the Issuer shall have no obligation under the Disclosure Undertaking to update such information or include it in any future Annual Report or notice of occurrence of a Material Event.

Noncompliance. In the event of a failure of the Issuer or the Dissemination Agent, if any, to comply with any provision of the Disclosure Undertaking with respect to a series of Bonds, any Participating Underwriter or any Beneficial Owner of the Bonds may take such actions as may be necessary and appropriate, including seeking mandamus or specific performance by court order, to cause the Issuer or the Dissemination Agent, if any, as the case may be, to comply with its obligations under the Disclosure Undertaking. Noncompliance with the provisions of the Disclosure Undertaking shall not be deemed an Event of Default under the Bond Resolution or the Bonds, and the sole remedy under the Disclosure Undertaking in the event of any failure of the Issuer or the Dissemination Agent, if any, to comply with the Disclosure Undertaking shall be an action to compel performance.

Electronic Transactions. Actions taken under the Disclosure Undertaking and the arrangements described therein may be conducted and related documents may be stored by electronic means.
