2018-19 KDHE WIC Special Supplemental Nutrition Program Grant Award Summary

Purpose:	The Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants, and Children (WIC) is a short-term intervention program designed to influence lifetime nutrition and health behavior in a targeted high-risk population. WIC provides: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Nutrition Education</li><li>• Breastfeeding support and education</li><li>• A monthly nutritious food package</li><li>• Referrals to other medical and community services</li><li>• Immunization screening</li><li>• WIC serves pregnant women, new mothers, breastfeeding women, infants and children under the age of five</li><li>• WIC requires income levels to be less than or equal to 185% of the poverty level and at least one medical or nutrition risk has to be documented.</li></ul>
Eligibility:	The following information is provided per Dave Thomason, KDHE Bureau of Family Health and KS WIC Director: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The federal regulations do not require that WIC be provided by a government entity. The regulations stipulate that the local agency be a “public or private non-profit health agency” or a “public or private non-profit human service agency”.</li></ul>
Utilization:	Typically, 88% of the WIC funds support staff salary and benefits, 10% covers contractual costs, and administrative fees paid to the County, and 2% funds commodities.
Grant Period:	October 1, 2018– September 30, 2019
