On October 24, 2018, Resolution 153-2018 was passed by the County which altered County Code Section 2-26. This action created some confusion and lack of clarity in how a meeting may be held and what constitutes a majority. The Board of County Commissioners wishes to clarify that binding action shall only be passed with a vote of the majority of members of the body, three.

Alternatives: Do not approve the resolution.
