Legislation Text

File #: 14-1146, Version: 1

Professional Service Agreement between Wichita State University and the Sedgwick County Department of Corrections.

Recommended Action: Approve the agreement and authorize the Chairman to sign.

Karen Countryman-Roswurm, Executive Director of Wichita State University's Center for Combating Human Trafficking, will provide four hours of training for Sedgwick County Corrections staff on how to work effectively with trauma-impacted youth in detention.

Alternatives: Not provide the training.

Financial Considerations: The training will cost $1,500, and funding is available in 33029-110. The fee for services includes any necessary preparation time for the training.

Legal Considerations: The authority for this action is K.S.A. 19-101. A simple majority vote is required.

Policy Considerations: None
